FROM THE PASTOR

When I think of this new resurrection reality as revealed by the experience of the women (Mk 16:1–8),

I think of faithful Christians at funerals. After all, these three ladies went to prepare Jesus' body for burial. Consider the comparison: The mourners gather at the church, viewing their deceased loved one's body for the final time. The pain of death and the emotions of grief weigh heavy. Those closest to the person have made many preparations in only a few days. It has been a stressful time. After the casket is closed and they come into the sanctuary, their minds are on the one they lost, on how life must go on without their dear departed friend. But then they hear a startling message. It begins with words like those of the apostle Paul, who wrote, "We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life"

(Rom 6:4). It continues with songs like the Easter hymn "I Know That My Redeemer Lives" (LSB 461).

As I proclaim the promises of Christ's resurrection in the sermon, they begin to adjust to the new, amazing reality of death being defeated—for their loved one who died in the faith, and for them!

Men's Alliance

Want to help out with the Men's Alliance (AKA Men's Club)

Please see Joe Cymerman if interested.

Some ideas to consider.

- Hosting a Mother's Day breakfast.
- Hosting a Coffee Hour, Breakfast, or Luncheon for another event.
- Doing a Spring Cleanup for the Church.
- Doing a Parking Lot yard-sale as a fund raiser and outreach to the community.

The Girl Scouts Daisy Troop 40145 is a new member of the church as they will be using our Fellowship Hall for their meetings to fulfill their mission statement. "Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place."

The Daisies meet on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday night of each month.

Led by Toni Ann Mulligan, Kate Reinertsen and Danielle Hansen.

They are just letting the church community know they are there!

Thank you so much Daisies for the wonderful Christmas packages sent out.
